WINTER - 1970

NEW HAMPSHIRE NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

Greater Manchester Winter Carnival, Inc.

POST OFFICE BOX 3076

MANCHESTER, NEW HAMPSHIRE 03105

Now is the time to order your 1970 Greater Manchester Winter Carnival Commemorative Medal. The picture above, showing each side of the medal, gives an indication of the beauty and attractiveness of this medal.

The Carnival Commemorative Medal has become a true collector's item. Sterling silver and bronze medals have been issued each year since 1967, the 10th Anniversary of the Carnival, and will continue for 10 consecutive years. A three year set of the silver medals recently sold for $150. These were sold by a local coin dealer to an individual collector.

"No more than 1,000" of the silver medals, numbered consecutively from 1 to 1000, are made available each year. An unlimited quantity of unnumbered bronze medals are also made available each year. Gold medalettes were issued last year for the first time, and annual issues of "no more than 20" consecutively numbered from 1 to 20, will continue for eight years. The price of the gold is $100.

The 1970 silver and bronze medals are priced the same as last year's, $8.50 and $2.50 respectively. As before, any person already owning silver or gold medals from prior years' issues and wishing to purchase a 1970 medal, will be guaranteed the same numbered medal, if ordered and paid for by the deadline date.

A very few silver and bronze medals are left from prior years' issues and are now available on a first come, first served basis. Silver medals from any of the prior years' issues are individually priced at $10.00, and the bronze medals are priced at $3.00. Cost of handling, and the fact that the demand for them seems to be exceeding the supply, has made it necessary to raise the price of the few medals still available from prior years' issues.

A matched 4 year set of the '67, '68, '69 and '70 silver medals all with the same number, is priced at $38.00. A 4 year set of the bronze is priced at $11.00.

Also, this year, we are making an attractive custom-made plastic holder available at a price of $8.00. It will hold 10 medals, either bronze or silver. Colors may be available, so specify a color if you desire to order a holder, in case we are able to oblige. Otherwise, one basic color, only, will be available, probably white.

You must place your order, with check or money order, by ^{IAN.} Nov. 24, 1969. Send to: Greater Manchester Winter Carnival, Inc., P. O. Box 3076, Manchester, N.H. 03105. Be sure to specify exactly which medals (and the holder) that are desired. We cannot guarantee a definite delivery date, but we will make every attempt to mail them prior to the start of the 1970 Carnival, which is February 6.

GREETINGS FROM N.H.N.A. PRESIDENT JAMES F. STONE, MILFORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE

My fellow members,

This is my first message to you since being elected your President, and I thought I would use this opportunity to acquaint you with some of my numismatic background.

Besides serving as your president I am also serving my second term as president of The Collectors' Club of Poston. I am a member of the A.N.A. and was recently elected Vice President of N.E.N.A. for 1970.

Having been an instructor in Numismatics for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Dept. of Adult Education, I know full well the value of knowledge that can be gained by attendance at properly planned and produced coin shows. Let me urge you to attend our forth-coming Eighth Annual N.H. N.A. convention and bring along a friend. High caliber exhibits have always been a prominent feature of N.H.N.A. shows. You are invited to exhibit and in so doing you are certain to gain in knowledge and find many with like interests.

I look forward to meeting all N.H.N.A. members, their friends, and guests at this show, so please step up and introduce yourselves.

James F. Stone, President N.H.N.A.

(letter) McFarland & Jenks, Print." (Signed) H. B. Foster. Reverse printed in green with large ornate numeral "H. B. Foster, Concord, N.H. (top) Druggist and Apothecary (bottom)" in triple circle. Union Bank organized by prominent Whigs in 1856 had rooms over Foster's Drug Store where this scrip could be redeemed. The 25¢ and 50¢ had pink background. All are very rare. Probably there was a 10¢ value but none located.

uncut sheet 25+50 127

A. W. Gale, March 20, 1863, 3¢. Printed in brown with facsimile of coin at upper left with numeral 3 surrounded by wreath, shield at top. (signed) A. W. Gale. Large red 3 in center. Rare. Gale issued the only civil war store card token from N. H.

George Hutchins & Co., Nov. 4, 1862, 5¢, 10¢, and 50¢. Printed in green. The 5¢ and 10¢ have regular numerals at upper left and Roman numerals at upper right and bottom center, while 50¢ used all regular numerals. There is a fancy pink background for numerals in top corners. "Concord, N.H., Nov. 4, 1862. / No. ___ (letter) / UNION BANK, CONCORD, / New-Hampshire / Pay the Bearer hereof FIVE (etc.) CENTS, in Current Funds, / when presented with our Checks in sums of even Dollars. / To the Cashier / McFarland & Jenks' Print." Signed Geo Hutchins & Co. Pink overprints include FIVE on pink background at top center and FIVE in large fancy letters; TEN in large fancy letters, and FIFTY CENTS fairly large on respective values. Signed pieces are very rare but unused ones are common with uncut sheets of one 2¢ and one 3¢ generally available. Luther B. Morrill and George H. Silsby were book binders and printers in Moore block. They probably printed these notes themselves. The wording would also permit their sale to other merchants who could put their own signature on them, although this might not have been wise.
